

Ergonomically Designed Seating

Each seat in a Hot Spring spa has been designed to maximize comfort and the benefits of hydromassage. Unlike in-ground spas typically made from concrete, our spa shells are formed to follow the body's contours, providing gentle support. Our ergonomic designs allow for ideal jet placement that targets specific muscle groups, and multi-level seating accommodates adults and children of varying heights.

